New Law Prohibits Local Option Election In JP 3

Dowlen Says Vote Liquor Halted For 18 Months

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

Umbarger's chances of having a local option election in October appear slim this week.

In fact, Justice Precinct 3 voters probably won't go to the polls on the liquor issue for 18 months.

Criminal District Attorney Attorney George Dowlen said Tuesday he would not recommend to Commissioners Court to call the election.

The controversy came to light Monday when County Clerk LeRoy Hutton told the court a new law passed by the 62nd Legislature prohibits a local option election in a political subdivision that has not been in existence for at least 18 months.

Justice Precinct 3 was moved only last month from the southeastern section of the county to the northwestern portion of the county by commissioners.

The readjusting came at the request of several Umbarger residents who desired to call a local option election in their section of the county but couldn't unless a new justice precinct was formed or an old one moved.

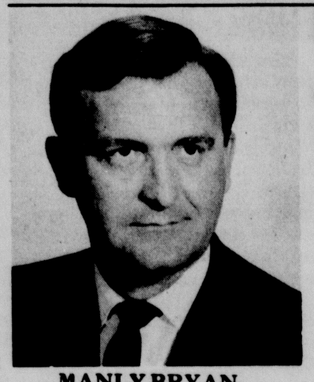
Petitions were issued to Siegfried Bolte of Umbarger last week and returned the next day with the needed number of signatures.

These were presented to the court Monday so an election date could be set, but action was deferred until a ruling could be obtained from the Attorney General.

Dowlen said after talking with the Attorney General's office, "from all indications the election can not be held in Justice Peace Precinct 3 for another 18 months."

Dowlen explained an official written opinion could not be obtained before Monday's meeting of commissioners, and he would not recommend calling the election.

"From all the research we have done, it looks like it will be impossible to allow a local option election in the new Justice Precinct 3 for 18 months," Dowlen declared.



MANLY BRYAN

City Dads will appoint an auditor and name representatives to the Panhandle Regional Health Council at their regular meeting tonight in the Community Center.

Manly Bryan Joins TML Committee

Canyon Mayor Manly Bryan has been named to the "Committee of the Future" a division of the Texas Municipal League.

In a letter to Bryan, Chairman Erik Jonsson, said the committee would function within the framework of the TML and would study current and long-term trends in urban affairs.

"The Committee's mission is to...identify problems to be faced by cities and city officials 5, 10 and 20 or more years in the future, and to

Purchased For Sheriff Three Cars

Randall County Commissioners purchased three cars and awarded bids on gravel and asphalt at the regular Monday meeting.

Courtesy American Motors received the nod over a field of seven bidders for three cars for the sheriff's department. A net purchase price with trade-ins was $6,960.00 for the three 1972 vehicles.

Vega Sand and Gravel Co. received the gravel and asphalt bid for three locations, and Texas Sand and Gravel Co., Inc. was awarded the bid on one other location for road repairs.

The locations where road repairs will be made include McCormick Road from Central Expressway east to the

Buffs-Cards Battle In WT Opener Here

The inexperienced defensive backfield of the West Texas State Buffaloes will be put to the test Saturday when the Buffs meet the aerial-minded Lamar University Cardinals at 8 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl.

In last year's tilt Lamar's quarterback, Tommy Tomlin hit on 12 of 14 pass attempts for 202 yards. That aerial accuracy helped the Cardinals douse the Buffs 33-28.

Tomlin, who was injured much of last year will again lead the Cardinal offensive, but against an inexperienced Buffalo secondary.

The Cardinals, as did the Buffs, lost their season opener. Sam Houston State edged Lamar 13-12.

Lamar has beaten WTSU two of the three previous outings. They return 16 starters from their team who went 3-7 last year. Nine of those returnees are offensive men, while seven are defensive specialists.

Last week the Buffs were humbled by powerful Memphis State, but WTSU head coach credited much of the loss to the mistakes of his own ball club.

"The one encouraging factor about last Saturday's game was that most of our errors appear to be the kind that can be corrected," Mayfield commented.

The Buffs have spent the entire week trying to do just that — correct their errors.

Though the Buffaloes were soundly defeated Mayfield praised some members of the ballclub including sophomore running back Billy Pritchett, who romped 86 yards in 27 carries Saturday, corner back David Jones and defensive end Walter Hibbler.

Jones racked up 71 yards on three punt returns and intercepted one Tiger pass. Hibbler made 11 unassisted tackles during the game.

The Buff starting lineup will remain intact from last week's game.

Ed Holwig will again be at the helm for the Buffs. He will be backed up at the tailback slot by 6-3, 230 sopho-

Regents Meet At University On Saturday

Proposed construction of library and science buildings and means of funding the projects are expected to be discussed by the West Texas State University Board of Regents Saturday afternoon.

The regents meet at 2 p.m. in the Activities Center and will attend that night's football game against Lamar University at Buffalo Bowl.

It was proposed that not more than $3 million be spent on construction and equipment of each building. The board will be asked to designate an architect.

Sept. 27 Hearing

Hospital Budget Aired

A proposed budget of $30,450.00 was reviewed by the South Randall County Hospital District Board Monday night and a public hearing on the budget was set Sept. 27.

The hearing will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Building, according to board president Mrs. T.G. Hull, Jr.

Budget expenditures for the 1971-72 fiscal year, which will run from Oct. 1 to Sept. 30, provides $12,000 in salaries; $5,000 for indigent care; $1,000 legal fees; $2,000 travel expenses; $2,000 for the contingency fund; $2,000 for bond expense; and $1,200 for payroll expenses.

But, the proposed budget would only require around 14,810.00 cash outlay for the first year, according to hospital district administrator Ray Grimes.

Grimes explained many items were budgeted high in case they had to be paid this year, but he said several expenses could be paid at a later date.

"And we may not use some of the budgeted monies," he declared. "But we have budgeted in case we need it."

He explained about $10,000 of the money shown in the budget should not be paid this year. Included in this would be the $5,000 for indigent care, $3,000 architectual fees, and $2,000 for bond expense.

The hospital administrator said Neblett Memorial Hospital board has agreed to continue absorbing all usual indigent care as a bad debt, but he said some money should be budgeted in case an unusual situation arises.

He also pointed out the architect's fee for submitting the Hill-Burton application, can possibly be added to the final drawing fees.

The $2,000 bond expense will not be due if the bonds are sold, but Grimes recommended the amount be budgeted.

The budget also includes an election expense of $500 for the election due in April, 1972, and an audit expense of $250.

Board member Bill Sternenberg reported on a trip Sunday to Austin to confer with the State Board of Health.

"I came away with the feeling that we had a board trying to help us," Sternenberg reported.

The board agreed to meet the third Monday of each month.

"Vienna or Bust"

Horse, Wagon In Parade

There's more to the old horse and buggy act than most realize.

Just ask Jay Findley, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Findley, who has spent the past several weeks training his horse Becky to pull a covered wagon.

Jay is working hard and fast to prepare for Monday's Tri-State Fair parade, in which he and Becky will appear.

The seventh grader, who is also a junior high school band member, will drive a covered wagon with a sign drapped across each side that reads, "Vienna or Bust".

And along the bottom of the wagon another sign will promote the Canyon High School Eagle Band booths which will be open during the fair.

But the real clincher will be Jay dressed as an Eagle.

"We have an Eagle costume that we will put him in...if the wind isn't blowing too hard," said Mrs. Roy Cates, chairman of the fair project for the band.

All this work is an attempt to raise more money for the band to attend the international music festival in Vienna, Austria next summer.

The horse and wagon entry is one of several projects planned for the fair, according to Mrs. Cates.

Two booths will be set up at the fairgrounds. One outside booth will be located at the entrance on the east side of the midway and will feature bean and meat burritos, pop corn, snow cones, cold drinks, dill pickles and the band cookbooks.

Six local merchants are sponsoring the band on the midway.

The inside booth will be located in the Commercial Exhibits Building along the east wall and will feature the hand crafts made by band members and towns people.

Mrs. Cates said such items as a quilt, paintings, dolls, ceramics, belts, stationery, harem anklets, cosmetics, snug bag, football magazines and the cookbooks will be on sale.

"We are trying to sell our crafts," she explained.

5 CHS Students Kept On Probation

BY TROY MARTIN

Decision to keep five students under strict probation was announced by Canyon school board Tuesday night after an Amarillo attorney had made a plea that at least a part of the probationary provisions be lifted.

The five were alledged to have smoked marijuana about two weeks ago.

Three of the boys involved were athletes. Seldon Hale, representing one of the boys, appeared with the youth's father before a two-hour closed session of the school board.

One of the provisions of probation imposed was that those involved be banned from extra curricular school activities.

Hale asked that this stipulation be set aside so his client could participate in football. He contended that the boy has a chance to win a college scholarship if he were to do well in football this year.

The incident is said to have come to light when one of the boys involved told a school administrator. Canyon police were involved in the investigation but said they were able to learn very little.

District Attorney George Dowlen refused to file criminal charges for lack of evidence.

Meetings on the matter were held in closed session after School Attorney Elton Cox advised the board that security of the school was involved.

Matters of security is one of the things which may be discussed by a board in executive session under provisions of the state open meetings law.

The five boys involved were suspended from school

For Or Against? Clerk's Problem

Randall County Clerk LeRoy Hutton realized his most embarrassing moment Friday afternoon.

Hutton, red faced and full of apologies, announced to commissioners court that an error had been made in his office involving the petitions for local option election in Justice Precinct 3.

The clerk, who has issued petitions for three local option elections in the past few months, issued petitions to Justice Precinct 3 only last week. The four last week. The four sheets were returned, stamped, dated, names were checked for voter qualifications, and the wheels began turning to set the date for an election.

All was well until Hutton discovered that three of the sheets were FOR the local option election, and one was AGAINST the election.

Both petitions call for an election, and as Hutton pointed out to the Commissioners Court Monday, the "against" petition did not have the needed 31½ signatures. It only had 30.

But the "for" petitions had 48 signatures some 17 more than needed.

Raymond Batenhorst, who was in charge of carrying the petition that read "against", said, "I kept reading it and thought that was strange, but I didn't see the other petitions, so I didn't know it was wrong."

The Umbarger farmer also said he had not spent much time circulating the petition, "because, I was awfully busy that day, and just didn't have time to get around with it."

Now he's glad he didn't. One and a half more signatures is a slim margin.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

There has been some talk around town that the school administration and school board should set down some guidelines for discipline. . . .that infractions meriting expulsion should be spelled out in no uncertain terms.

I don't think I go along with this idea entirely. This would seem too much like a criminal code.

I think a child should be expelled from school only when he becomes so unmanageable that school officials can no longer handle him.

Yes, and I believe we should return to the strap even for high schoolers who won't behave.

I remember my high school superintendent had a thick, well-worn leather strap which he knew how to apply. He loved to use it on deserving candidates — of which I was one on two or three occasions.

The school board set few limitations on his using that leather thong and I can't remember his ever having gone to the school board for advice on disciplinary problems in the school.

I remember once when I was a junior in Morton High School a group of us decided to paint the water tower and to assist the city in removing some traffic signs we thought the town could do without.

The paint hadn't dried on the water tower and the dust hadn't settled back into the holes from which we had removed the signs before School Supt. J.B. Neutzwaner had the news complete with the names of the culprits.

Today he couldn't have laid a finger on us. He would have been forced to call a school board meeting to tell him what to do. But his instincts in such matters was unerring.

The guilty were called into his office and he started meting out punishment. He came to a hulking football player who allowed he wouldn't take a whipping from anyone.

"I'll quit school first," he declared.

"Maybe you'll quit school, Ray," said the superintendent. "I don't know about that but I do know that if you quit, you'll quit fresh whipped."

"I'll fight you first," the boy replied.

"That's fine, Ray," the superintendent rejoined. "I haven't had a fight since I was in college and I do so LOVE to fight."

The boy took the whipping. He graduated from high school He idolized J.B. Neutzwarner and he is today a businessman of some importance.

I think the Neutzwarner approach would still work today if our school people were just allowed to use it.

How bad is the marijuana problem in our schools and college in this community?

Reports vary. Police here say it's not particularly bad.

A school official who declined to be quoted last week told me it is bad and worsening in the Canyon public school system.

The 64 dollar question is what to do about it?

Marijuana today seems to be on about the same footing as bathtub gin was in prohibition days. Home brew then was made and consumed by the gallon although even having it was a federal offense punishable by a term in federal prison.

People made it and drank it anyway.

And a lot of that homemade stuff was dangerous. Remember Jamaica Ginger? It was kind of gin referred to in street vernacular as "Jake." You could wind up with a permanent hitch in your get along as a result of imbibing that stuff.

In my childhood I remember seeing a lot of fellows with tanglefoot that came out of a bottle of "Jake." The malady was known as "Jake Leg" and the community wasted little sympathy on those who found it so difficult to put one foot in front of the other.

Regardless of what may have been said on the subject, statistics clearly prove that marijuana is addictive to the extent that people who use it become dependent on it and it is a stepping stone to harder drugs such as heroin — a real killer.

The Globe News generated $100,000 worth of publicity by passing a ban on advertising X-rated movies.

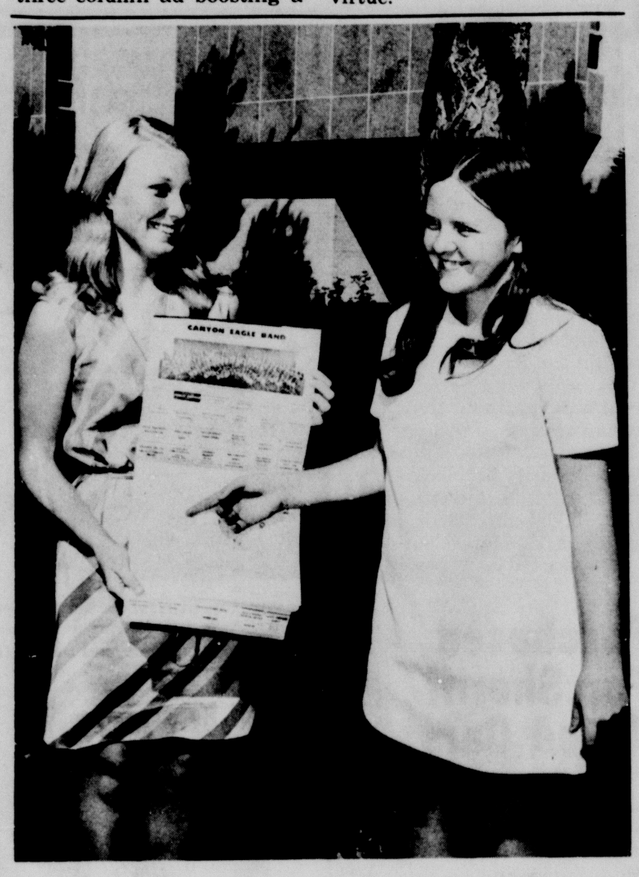
I seriously doubt that the good and moral G-N deprived its self of much revenue by these refusals. The fact is that they didn't run much advertising on X-rated movies anyway.

I got a kick out of seeing a three column ad boosting a Billy Graham television show right next to an ad for a movie called "Carnal Knowledge" in the same edition which carried dozens of letters praising the G-N for its X-rating ban.

The good old Gobe-News continues to hold its blue nose and accept advertising for liquor, R-rated movies and parimutuel racing. The G-N also hawks packaged heart attacks and lung cancer (cigarettes).

I am not critical of the Globe-News for accepting such advertising. They have to make a living and the kind of advertising they accept is their decision.

But I look askance at their boast of banning X-rated movies in the same way I would view with a jaundiced eye a harlot's boast of her virtue.



Brenda Russell, right, recognizes a name and a birthdate on the annual CHS Eagle Band calendar, which is being sold this week by band members. Mary K. Stubblefield teamed up with Brenda to help in the sale. Band members are going door-to-door this week to collect names of persons who would like their name listed on their birthdate. Charge for a single name is $1; a couple, $1.50, and a family, $2.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

America refuses to enforce the death penalty on vicious murderers and incorrigible criminals. This policy has sentenced to death thousands of innocent, productive citizens — and crime marches on.

What is crime? Is it not the violation of the rights (person and property) of others?

Who then is indulging in the most criminal activity in America?

Who is invading our homes and dragging our children (our most precious possession) off to be "educated" in a place and manner contrary to the desires of both parents and children ?

Who is seizing our sons, transporting them halfway around the world, and compelling them to fight and die in useless, no-win wars where they are not even allowed to defend themselves or American property?

Who controls the American businessman (on whom all our livelihoods depend), and dictates whom he can hire, what wages he must pay, and even forbids him to discharge employes regardless of how worthless or destructive they may be?

Who confiscates more than one third of the average American's income every year, and practically everything he has managed to accumulate as soon as he dies?

A democracy is a country where the majority rules. Yet practically all current American policies admittedly benefit minorities at the expense and against the will of the majority.

(Why not send the unhappy minorities back to countries where they can be members of the majority?)

If we hope to return to law and order in America, we must begin with the forces that control it.

Law and order is like inflation: Everyone wants it for himself at the expense of others.

What does the rebel professor who incites his students to imprison the administration, burn down the university, and stone the police, do when he finds his car has been stolen?

The prisoners at Attica demanded kindness, consideration, and privilege for themselves. Yet had they been willing to give even justice to others, they would never have been in prison.

The courts (and governors) that failed to enforce the laws already on our statute books against murderers and habitual criminals are responsible for the deaths of the innocent victims at Attica.

What will it take to convince our courts that there is no way to protect society from incorrigible criminals as long as they are alive? And have generations of experience not proved that a felon is incorrigible after his third conviction?

If the authorities had capitulated to the ridiculous demands of the prisoners at Attica, and loosed all those criminals on the world, only God knows the chaos that would have resulted, and the innocent lives that would have been sacrificed.

(And what would have happened in other prisons across the Country?)

If we do not return to law and order, America will be destroyed as have other great civilizations before us — by internal weaknesses.

How can we expect individuals to respect each other when our government ignores the rights of the majority of Americans?

If we are ever to restore law and order, we must begin by returning to government by the consent of the governed. How many Americans love their Country enough to demand their Congressmen do so?

Buff Cross Country Team Runs Today

The West Texas State Buffalo cross country team was to have opened their season today in Plainview at the Wayland Baptist College Invitational.

The Buff's are the defending champs of the tourney and will be competing against the same teams that entered last year.

Entered in the meet are Wayland, Texas Tech, Lubbock Christian College and the Buffs.

Leading the WT team will be team captain Jim Hogan, who was the only sophomore to place in the Missouri Valley Conference top 10 last year. Other Buffalo thinclads are: senior letterman, Harvey Hudspeth of Clovis; freshman, Steve Crisp of Dumas; sophomore, Rusty Barrett of Seminole and freshman, Stanley Scott of Andrews.

Cross country coach Bob Kitchens said that his team was inexperienced and he could not predict how they will run under the pressure of a meet.

In the Saturday time trials held at Amarillo's Thompson Park, Hogan ripped off the best time with a 10-flat clocking in the two-mile run. The winning time at Plainview for the past three years has been 10:05 or slower.

The meet was to have been run at 4 p.m. on the Plainview Country Club golf course.

Jobs Divided At Computer Center

Duties at the WTSU Computer Center have been divided. L. Durwood Henderson, director of the center and head of the Department of Computer Information Systems, has been named Director of Computer Services. Dr. Philip J. Gensler is to head the Department of Computer Information Systems and will be responsible for the development of the academic department.

Henderson will manage the Computer Center and is in charge of developing computer services for the administration and for classroom work.

Henderson has worked with data processing at WTSU since 1962. He has been with the university for 14 years.

Gensler has taught math and computer information systems at the university. He is listed is "Who's Who in Computer Science and Data Processing," a volume compiled by "the New York Times."

Lecturers Named For WT Class

Business administration students at West Texas State University have an opportunity again to learn first-hand of the experiences of leading Texas business and professional men and women.

The experiences are related to students in B.A. 475, conducted by Dr. Zeke Marchant, head of the Department of Business Administration.

Umbarger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

I wonder how many people know that the Umbarger community maintains a fire department. This year the volunteers have been called out on only five fires, but in the first year, 1966, 31 calls were answered.

Once a month, the members meet in the building which houses the 1966 model fire-fighting vehicle. The truck was bought by the Randall County commissioners; most of the equipment for the truck was purchased by the fire department which receives $25 from Randall County for each call made. The department also serves Deaf Smith County when it is called upon.

Since the beginning five years ago, there have been no injuries while answering a call. Jack Brandt, secretary, explained that most of the members have participated in advanced first-aid training. At present there are eighteen active members; a requirement is that they attend at least six meetings during the year. They are issued membership cards for a one-year period. Purpose of this card is to admit them into a dangerous area when they do not arrive with the fire truck.

During the monthly meetings, the equipment is checked and the men practice the skills needed for fire-fighting. They often practice with the Canyon Fire Department and the representatives from the Panhandle Fire Extinguisher Co. have given demonstrations. John Grabber, Ray Gerber and Vincent Meyer, Sr. have traveled to College Station for a short course in fire fighting at A & M.

Kinds of fires extinguished by the members have been grass fires usually caused by sparks along the railroad, automobiles along the the highway, farm buildings and homes. The worst fire, the men decided, was the old office service building at Buffalo Lake that burned in 1967. The fire truck was also used to radio messages during the last snow storm when telephones were out. The radio is on the same frequency as those of the city of Canyon.

Present officers include Willie Wieck, president; Darrel Adams, vice-president; Jack Brandt, secretary; and John Grabber, Fire Chief with assistant Ray Gerber. Past preidents include Roscoe Richardson and Raymond Batenhorst.

A recruiting program has been established. Although young men cannot serve until they are twenty-one, quarterly sessions are planned to orient the prospective members on the equipment and methods used. Boys 18 and over are invited to practice; a training field has been set up west of the coop elevator in Umbarger.

An interesting side point is that the fire building is on land leased from St. Mary's Catholic Church for ninety-nine years or until the fire department ceases. This lease has been duly certified through proper legal channels.

The volunteer fire department does not forget its families. An annual picnic is held in July at Buffalo Lake and in the winter a family night is held. Refreshments are served and films on fire safety have been shown to 100 guests.

Student Center For Faith Chapel Slated

Initial work on a $162,000 student center for Faith Chapel began this week on the acquired property of the chapel just east of the WT campus.

Test drilling for the foundation and basement of the two-story structure was underway Tuesday. The results will be sent to the architects who in turn will determine stresses for foundation structure, according to Marcus Adair, director of Faith Chapel.

Adair said the first steps toward the construction of the 10,000 square foot building, began several years ago when he began acquiring property near the university in an effort to get a block of land for the center.

The center will emphasize Christian ministry on the layman's level, according to Adair.

The non-denominational chapter of the Apostolic Faith Outreach Inc. will direct the operation of the new center, which will include classrooms, office space, a prayer chapel, student lounge, recreational area, counseling offices, a library and study area and an apartment for a caretaker.

Adair said the building will be two stories with a basement. The basement will house the recreational area along with mechanical facilities. Two classrooms will be located on the ground floor, and the apartment, along with the snack area and lounge.

Counseling will be the main interest on the second floor with three offices designed, and a group counseling room for home and marriage problems. The library and study area will also be located near the prayer chapel, which will seat 46 persons.

Further plans for the project will be released at a later date, according to Adair.

Marcus Adair of Faith Chapel, center, checks drilling tests with Henry Jones, left, and Jay Morgan, both of the Texas Testing Labs, Inc. This is the first step in construction of a 10,000 square foot, two story plus basement Faith Chapel Student Center at the corner of 2nd Ave. and 26th Street.

4 Arraigned On Marijuana Possession

Four West Texas State University students were arraigned before Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson Monday on charges of possession of marijuana.

Bond for each was set at $2,000.

The four were picked up at 12:15 a.m. Sunday in the 500 block of 25th Street by Canyon police Lt. Alan Stewart.

Stewart said he stopped the vehicle for a traffic violation, and a search of the car produced a bag of marijuana.

Arraigned Monday were Kenneth Jay Ulmer, 19 of Andrews, Thomas Henry Jenkins, 19 of Olton, Michael Raymond Sweatt, 19 of Canyon, and Harry Charles Stewart, 21 of Pennsylvania.

Taylor Charged With Possession Of Paraphenilia

Douglas Homer Taylor, 20, was charged with possession of narcotic paraphenilia and bond was set at $5,000 by Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson Monday morning.

Taylor, a junior at West Texas State University, was arrested early Saturday morning in Stafford Hall by campus security officers, Canyon police officers and Sheriff deputies.

Officers said the dorm director alerted authorities and the student was arrested around 3:20 a.m.

Taylor was suspended from WT last February on possession of narcotics charges, according to Dean of Men Weldon Trice.

Trice said a check of Taylor's summer activities showed no other offenses and Trice agreed to readmit the boy.

"I had several conversations with the boy before admitting him this fall, and he was most eager to get back into school," Trice said.

Recipes Are Corrected

Some of the measurements in the following recipes were incorrect in Thursday's Canyon News. The corrected recipes follow. The society editor apologizes to Mrs. Edel Money.

GERMAN APPLE CAKE
3 cups flour
4 eggs
1 tbsp. baking powder
2¼ cups sugar
1 cup cooking oil
1/3 cup orange juice
1 tsp. salt
1 tbsp. vanilla
1 tbsp. butter flavoring
4 medium apples, sliced very thin

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and 1½ cups of the sugar. (Reserve 3/4 cup of the sugar.) Add orange juice, vanilla, and butter flavoring, eggs, and oil. Mix until smooth. Grease a 9 or 10-inch tube pan. Layer apples and batter alternately, three times, ending with apples on top. Over each layer of apples, sprinkle the following mixture: 3/4 cup sugar, 1 tsp. nutmeg, 1 tsp. cinnamon.

Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes at 350 degrees.

BAKED CHICKEN AND RICE
1 fryer, cut up
1½ cups rice (not minute rice)
3 cans soup (cream of chicken, cream of mushroom, or cream of celery or any combination of the three)
2 1/3 cans water

Mix the uncooked rice with the soup and water, put in large casserole or small roaster, and lay the chicken on top. Sprinkle chicken with salt. Cover with aluminum foil and bake at 350 F. about 2-2½ hours.

Mrs. Max Hester of Lubbock discusses plans for the upcoming Delta Zeta State Day and Founder's Day with Miss Jo Moore of Wildorado, national director of Public Relations, Mrs. Don Olson, Canyon alumnae president; and Mrs. Larry Cook, vice president. The Canyon-Lubbock groups including the WTSU Zeta Zeta chapter will hostess both affairs.

Salad Supper For Visiting DZ Alumnae

Delta Zeta's Founder's Day will be held October 2 at the Lubbock Women's Club it was announced Monday.

Sessions will begin at 10:30 a.m. and include an opening address by state president Mrs. Mary Margaret Fore of San Antonio. The Founder's Day Ritual will follow. After a luncheon groups will divide into interest goups and work on sorority State Day arrangements.

The state meet will be held in Lubbock at the Red Raider Inn April 15 and 16.

Twelve Lubbock alumnae were present at the Monday evening salad supper held in the home of Mrs. Larry Cook, 1210 Creekmere.

Visiting the Canyon group were Mmes. Kline Nall, Leonard Segal, Jim Williams, Ellis Huddleston, Bill McAnelly, Eldon Hodges, Donna Read, Iryne Hawkins, Jack Meathenia, P.M. Larson, Max Hester, and chapter president, Mrs. Warren S. Walker.

Special guest was Miss Jo Moore, national director of public relations for Delta Zeta.

Canyon alumnae attending the supper included Mmes. Royal Brantley, Larry Cook, Claiborn Crain, Gary Garner, John Green, Bob Henry, Hogye Hogle, R.P. Jarrett, J.W. King, Jr., Rose Kinzer, Virginia Langford, O.A. McBroom, W.E. Miller, Vaughn Nelson, Dean Nicholas, Don Olson, J.O. Parker, Betty Sue Patterson, A.J. Peters, Borden Price, Edith Priddy, Fred Stoker, and Larry Murphy.

After the meal the alumnae adjourned to the WTSU Activities Center for a meeting with the Zeta Zeta chapter concerning State Day arrangements.

CHILDHOOD NOSEBLEEDS ARE COMMON

The three most frequent reasons for a child's nosebleed are a dryness of the mucous membranes, rubbing or picking at the nose during sleep and a small ulcer area in the nose. If repeated often, consult a physician.

Often the problem can be corrected by improving the humidification in the home and the application of white petroleum jelly to the inside of the nostrils to prevent dryness. If needed your doctor can, in a simple procedure, cauterize a small ulcerated area.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

That Andy Hanson popped in last weekend from the Air Force Academy in Colorado. Mother and Daddy Hanson report that he was doing fine and looking great, as per usual, and was really enthused about the Academy.

Happy Birthday to Greg Cates and Scott Oglesby.

Our industrious friend, Mrs. Johnny "Phylis" Hicks has bought an interest in business. It is the Match Box which is a gift shop located at Sunset Center in Amarillo. Now all we friends of Phylis need to tootle by and take a looksee. Phylis says she lots of stuff, from 55¢ on up. She just returned from the Market in Dallas and brought back loads of those popular patches that you sew on, and lots of samples. Lots of luck Phylis on your new venture.

Welcome to the Gene Howe neighborhood to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson.

Happy Birthday to Tracy Betty and Donnie Mier.

A get well wish to little Tracy Walker who has been in the Northwest Texas hospital for surgery. Tracy, hope you're soon fit as a fiddle.

Understand that the Leonard Schmidts have had "Uncle George" here as a houseguest as of lately from Fort Worth. A big "Howdy" to him.

Man alive, did you catch that Canyon game Friday, Last??

What a doozie!! I'd say they did things up just right. Congrats, team, and coaches, and cheerleaders, and band. Speaking of the band — they are still working like little ants to get to Vienna, Austria next year. The Band will sponsor two booths at the Fair this year, one on the outside, selling burritoes, and lots to eat, and the other in the Commercial Exhibits building on the east wall. The latter will sell all sorts of home made crafts made by the kids and parents. Also available at both booths will be the Cookbook which sells for $3.65 and each student get $2.00 credit for each book sold. Lets all make it a point to stop by either or both of these booths and support our "great" Eagle Band.

A get well wish to Tom Engle.

Happy Anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lovelady.

That "swift" tennis player, formerly of West Texas State fame, Leo Estopare is in real need of some wheels to motor his body into Amarillo each day of the week. He needs to be downtown Amarillo by eight bells, and if you live in Canyon and are in a position to help out, just give him a call — 655-9790. Leo lives at 409 27th Street, Apt. 5.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Bell on Camp Lane who have moved here from Jamez Springs (that's dangerously close to Albuquerque, N.M.)

Happy Birthday to Randy Podzemny and Beverly Podzemny.

Nobie Cates is home from boot camp in Orlando, Florida. He leaves Sunday to go to Memphis, Tennessee where he will be involved in an anti-submarine radar training school and is presently ranked as an aviation apprentice. (Confusing, eh, what?) His mom reports he sure looks better than when he arrived — lots of tender loving care. Best of luck, Nobie.

By the bye, have you ordered your band calendar yet, with your own birthday and /or anniversary on your day. Time is running out, but if you are interested, just call Pat Seth — 366-6929 or Sherri Cates — 355-2080, post haste.

Happy Birthday to Mrs. Frank "Billie" Hanson and a cheery "Hello" to husband, Frank, and hope you are feeling better.

Understand that sweet Carol Cummins is going to have the knot tied up tight with Randy Costley on the 25th of September. Lots of luck to you both. Carol, you recall, is the brother to Bob Glisar, one of those great Canyon football players.

Well, the first Cub Scout Roundup for the Gene Howe area was held this week. Coming in as new committeemen and Den mothers are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dove, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, Mr. E.W. "Buster" Carlilse, Mr. Doug Ford, Mr. Johnny Hanson, Mrs. Paul Nagunst, and Mrs. Ronnie Mayfield. Those coming back to help again this year are Bill Seth, Pat Seth, Charlotte Atherton, Pete Solbrige, James Nash, and Committee Chairman, Roy Cates, and Den Leader, Sherri Cates. Now yall, they have enough boys to have a pack in Mescalaro Park and the Palisades, but they are in desperate need of mommies in these areas to be den mothers. Sherri Cates will have a training session at her home on September 28 and if you are interested, and you should be (this is worthwhile), just call her — 355-2080.

Yall phone me your news, thanks in advance. 376-9853 or 352-2089.

Waugh Delayed By Hurricane

Dr. Kenneth Waugh experienced his first hurricane while working on "Project Esperanza" at Pan-American University in Edinburg over the weekend.

His was the last plane to leave the Corpus Christi airport Friday and he said, "The winds were blowing so hard when we took off that we went down the runway just like a snake."

Waugh, head of the Testing and Counseling Center at WTSU, was at Pan-American University to work on a program for disadvantaged students with Mexican-American backgrounds.

He returned to Canyon Monday, a day later than he had planned, because all flights had been delayed or cancelled by Hurricane Fern.

Randall Smith State Honoree

Randall Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Smith of Canyon, will receive the State Fair of Texas Honorary Award at the annual fair Awards Dinner Oct. 15 in Dallas.

The award is given yearly for outstanding leadership, farming programs and personality in the agricultural field.

Smith has been active in three years of FFA work and has shown livestock throughout his high school years.

He is a FFA chapter secretary and was Area I Lone Star Farmer last year. He ranked third on the state level last year.

Smith is a senior at Canyon High School.

Special Dishes Shared

BY NELL WILLIAMS

"They were all pleasant places to live. We've been happy wherever we've been," said adaptable Mrs. Russell Sparling, 2420 8th Ave., recalling the years of teaching and study which have brought her and her family to Canyon.

Her husband is in the process of having his doctoral dissertation approved at Duke University, Durham, N.C. He is an assistant professor of English at West Texas State University.

The family likes Canyon because "We have so many nice friends, and because of the facilities for the children," she said. The children are Kirk, 11, and Craig, 6.

"If they are getting the most out of life and broadening their horizons, I think that's important."

The Sparlings started their educational trek at the University of Texas at Arlington where the English teacher did his undergraduate work and Mrs. Sparling worked as a legal secretary for a Dallas firm. They moved on to Duke for his Master's degree and then to Williamsburg, where Sparling spent four years teaching English at the College of William and Mary before returning to Duke to begin work on his doctoral program.

They are originally from St. Louis, Mo.

In addition to her home duties, Mrs. Sparling works parttime in the University Library at WTSU in the circulation department's reader service program. She has previously held parttime jobs in the Canyon City Hall and at the Randall County Courthouse.

"We all like to be involved in nature and like to camp," said Mrs. Sparling. Last year, the four of them made a winter camping trip to New Mexico, "where the snow fell on us." A stay at a cabin near Colorado Springs provided a break this summer.

"The bulldozers were pushing snow away from the buildings on Pike's Peak," she remembered, relishing the suggestion of an arctic climate.

Last year she was head of the Newcomers Committee for Wives, Etc., an organization of women connected with WTSU.

She expects to be organizing swimming classes for university children sometime in October. This will be a repeat of a project begun last year.

Her sixth-grader Kirk is "just involved in everything" with the emphasis on sports. He plays baseball, basketball, and football with Kids, Inc., and is a cornet-player in the band at Rex Reeves School.

Craig, the family artist, is a first-grader. His works, chiefly in oil pastels are on display in the family living room. He began to use the pastels while recovering from a head injury sustained in a fall last spring.

The fifth member of the family is Erka, a German shepherd female not quite a year old.

To give her family a treat, or when company is coming, she sometimes fixes Ham Wafflewiches or a Mock-Cheese Souffle. Other favorites are a chicken dish called The President's Choice, and Southern Pie, a dessert taken from "Dulsa's Recipes for Ready Reference," a book compiled by the Duke University Library Staff Association while Mrs. Sparling was in charge of the graduate reading room at the Duke library.

Recipes follow:

HAM WAFFLEWICHES

½ pound coarsely ground or finely chopped cooked ham (1½ cups)
1 3-ounce can chopped broiled mushrooms, drained (½ cup)
1/3 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
¼ cup chopped celery
1 tbsp. chopped onion
12 frozen waffles

* * * *

2 tbsp. butter or margarine
2 tbsp. all-purpose flour
4 tsp. prepared mustard
½ tsp. salt
1 ½ cups milk

Combine ham, mushrooms, mayonnaise, celery, and onions, toss till well-mixed. Spread mixture on six of the frozen waffles; top with remaining waffles. Place on baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) for 12 to 15 minutes or till waffles are crisp. Meanwhile, in small saucepan, melt butter or margarine. Blend in flour, mustard and salt. Add milk; cook and stir till thickened. Serve over sandwiches. Makes six servings.

MOCK-CHEESE SOUFFLE

4 slices bread
Soft butter
½ pound grated cheese (sharp)
2 eggs
1 tsp. salt
1½ cups milk
4 slices bacon

Spread butter on bread cut in cubes, put in greased casserole dish. Mix cheese, eggs, salt, and milk. Pour over bread cubes; add bacon on top. Bake 30 min. at 350 degrees. Can be prepared the day before.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHOICE

3-3½ pounds of chicken
2 tbsp. fat
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tbsp. vinegar
2 tbsp. brown sugar
¼ cup lemon juice
1 cup catsup
3 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
½ tbsp. prepared mustard
1 cup water
½ cup chopped celery
salt to taste
dash red pepper

Cooking may be done in the skillet or in the oven. For oven preparation:

Cut chicken into serving pieces, brown in hot fat in skillet, remove to casserole. Add onion and celery to fat and brown lightly, add remaining ingredients, simmer 30 minutes. Pour over browned chicken in casserole and cover with foil. Bake at 325 degrees for one hour.

For skillet cooking, brown chicken and remove to drain. Brown onion and celery, return chicken to pan, add remaining ingredients and simmer for 1½ hours.

Serve over rice.

SOUTHERN PIE

3 egg whites, beaten stiff
1 cup sugar, add gradually, beat well.
14 Ritz crackers, rolled fine
½ tsp. baking powder
1 cup nuts, chopped fine (pecans)

Fold crackers, baking powder and nuts into egg mixture and baké in buttered pie pan at 300 degrees for 40 min. Cool and top with prepared whipped topping or whipped cream and refrigerate for seven hours or more. Top with nuts.

Mrs. Russell Sparling slides a pan of Southern Pie into her oven. The recipe is one she contributed to a book compiled by the Duke University Library Staff Association while in charge of the graduate reading room there.

Speaker Writes Books Based On Turkish Tales

By CAROL CRAIN

"It takes $40,000 to produce a children's book," Barbara Walker stated in Canyon this week.

The Lubbock resident has currently published eleven books, two have been filmed and three others are scheduled to be released in spring 1972.

The books, published in full color with hardback covers, are based on Turkish oral narratives.

"The Turkish have a wonderful way of telling stories," she smiled, explaining that her husband, now a Texas Tech professor, was a Fullbright lecturer in American Literature at the University of Ankara, Turkey in 1961-62.

While on Turkish soil the two gathered material in the native tongue mostly on tapes, and are currently compiling the largest archive of Turkish oral narratives on this side of the ocean. The archive will be presented to the Texas Tech University library upon completion.

From some of the material Mrs. Walker takes the tape, translates, and reworks the stories and sends them to publishers of children's books.

"I have nothing to do with selecting the illustrator for the books", she noted, "that is done by the publisher...it can't be done by your neighbor down the street",

Follett of Chicago has published "Just Say Hic!" which has also just been filmed by the British film company Bodley Head; "Hilili and Dilili", "Once There Was and Twice There Wasn't", "I Packed My Trunk" and "The Ifrit and the Magic Gifts" is to be published in January.

Parent's Magazine Press of New York has published "Stargazer to the Sultan"; "Watermelons, Walnuts, and the Wisdom of Allah"; "The Dancing Palm Tree and Other Nigerian Folktales"; "The Mouse and the Elephant"; "The Round Sultan and the Straight Answer" is due for publication in January with "How the Hare Told the Truth About His Horse" scheduled for March.

Crowell of New York has published "Korolu, the Singing Bandit", the story of the Turkish Robin Hood and "The Courage of Kazan".

Publisher David White of New York has printed "Pigs and Pirates", which has been filmed.

The talented writer taught four years in junior high school in New York State, seven years of Children's Literature at Blackburn's College in Illinois, and five years at Parsons College in Iowa. She also taught English as a foreign language at a Turkish Elementary School during her stay there. She has recently returned from an extensive tour of Europe.

This year she was selected to represent 150 children's authors by Parent's Magazine Press at the American Library Association Conference held in Dallas in June. Each year the company asked its most outstanding children's author to autograph copies of her books at the conference.

She is married to Warren S. Walker, who was named the eleventh professor at Texas Tech to receive the Horn Professor Award. Horn was the first president of the university and the award, given in his name, honors an internationally known scholar who is highly rated by his fellow professors and considered excellent by his students.

Mrs. Walker is a member of the Authors' Guild; Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalism and communication fraternity; American Folklore Society, Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity; and was named Delta Zeta, national social sorority's "Most Distinguished Alumnae in 1970." She is currently president of the Delta Zeta Alumnae Chapter in Lubbock.

"My aim has been to acquaint American children with central Turkish folk characters," she concluded the interview, "that has now been achieved."

The children's books sell from $3.50 to $4.95. Mrs. Walker may be written at 3703 66th St. in Lubbock for further information on lecturers, autograph parties, or fund raising events.

Richardson To Present Recital

Jerry Richardson will present his senior recital in the WTSU Branding Iron Theatre at 4 p.m. Sept. 22.

The bass-baritone will be accompanied by Mrs. Mary Jane King.

Richardson is a student of Dr. Hugh Sanders. He is preident of the WTSU Choral and has been a member of the cast of "Texas" for three summers. He is a winner of the Houston Bright Achievement Award and Scholarship, a member of the Scholarship Quartet at First Christian Church, and the holder of an applied voice scholarship at the university.

Reunions Scheduled At WTSU Saturday

The 1950 West Texas State Football team and the WTSU class of 1951 will hold reunions on the WTSU campus Saturday.

The 1950 gridders, which were the only Buff team to ever post ten victories in a single season, will meet at noon at the cafeteria for a luncheon and to watch the film of the 1950 WTSU-Texas Tech game.

Head Buffalo coach Gene Mayfield quarterbacked the '50 squad to those ten wins.

Frank Wise of Dimmitt is the chairman of the committee that organized the reunion. Clinton Williams of Panhandle and Wix Price of Borger also served on that committee.

There were 46 members of that team and approximately 35 are expected at the gathering Saturday.

The cost is $2.25 per plate.

The members of the 1951 class have scheduled a coffee at the Activities Center for 3 p.m. They will meet again at 5 p.m. at the cafeteria for dinner.

Bill Davis headed the committee for that reunion. Mrs. Clinton Williams of Panhandle, Charles SoRelle, Price and Wise were on that committee.

Guests at both reunions are scheduled to attend the WTSU-Lamar Tech ball game at 8 p.m. Saturday night.

Jay Findley, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Findley, takes his horse Becky through her paces of pulling a covered wagon as practice for the Tri-State Fair parade. "Vienna or Bust" will decorate the side of the wagon, and another sign will promote the band booths at the fair. The band is raising money to attend an international music festival in Vienna, Austria next summer.

Overnight Delivery For Mail

A new mail service program allowing overnight delivery for ZIP coded first class mail was initiated this week in the Amarillo area.

Postmaster Lee Roy Moreland said eight areas connecting Amarillo will benefit from the next-day deliveries under a new mail service goal announced by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

The areas include the following sectional centers: Amarillo, Childress, Clovis, N.M., Liberal, Kans., Lubbock, Roswell, N.M., Tucumcari, N.M., and Wichita Falls.

First class mail deposited by 4 p.m. on weekdays in the Canyon office and West Texas Station will be delivered the next day in those sectional centers. Collection boxes in Canyon are located at Palo Duro Village, City Hall, Randall County Courthouse, and the south side of the square.

Moreland said a final dispatch leaves at 5:40 p.m. daily, but encourages customers to deposit mail by 4 p.m. to receive the best possible delivery service.

Jr. High Gridders Open '71 Season With Six Intramural Contests

The Canyon Junior High gridders, as did most other grid teams, began their seasons last week.

The teams began a three week schedule of intramurals, which preceeds any out-of-town competition, according to junior high coach Eddie Smith.

Following are the results of those games:

In the seventh grade competition the Purple team humbled the Whites 12-0. Greg Carlile opened the scoring for the Purple team on a 60-yard run around right end.

Ronnie Howell ripped the second TD of the day for the Purple gridders, when he went around left and for 30 years.

The second game of the day saw the Gold and Red teams play to a scoreless tie.

* * * *

The eighth grade Red team eased by the Purple team 6-0 in their tilt.

Jack Wright scored the only touchdown in that tilt on a 60-yard sprint from scrimmage.

Ken Cooper, of the eighth grade White team, connected with Hoss Ratiff on a 40-yard aerial for a touchdown.

The score provided the margin needed to down the eighth grade Gold team 6-0.

* * * *

The ninth grade Whites ripped the Purple team 12-0 in their game.

Richard Dillehay provided the first score of the game on a four-yard plunge. In the second quarter defensive man Steve Wilburn copped offensive pass and returned it for 30 yards and a touchdown.

The second half proved to be a standoff between the defensive squads.

The second contest was to be a defensive battle from the opening whistle on, but the Purple team finally topped the White team 10-0.

Garre LaGrone, on a quarterback sneak, took the ball for the final six steps for the White team and the only touchdown of the game. He also made the two point PAT on another quarterback sneak.

That TD was set up on a blocked punt by Andy Grims.

The final two points of the game came when Purple quarterback, Steve Wilbur was trapped in his own end zone.

from one to three days before action on probation was taken by the board last week.

Dr. Dudley Moore, board president, said the boys will be on disciplinary probation for the entire year but some of the provisions may be lifted in January. They will be required to attend counselling sessions. Four of the boys are seniors.

In the open portion of the meeting which followed the executive session, Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board that revenue for public schools will come primarily from state and federal sources if a recent California court decision is upheld.

He said money would probably be allocated on a per-student basis and authority of the local school board would to a great extent be nullified.

Jacobs presented a budget of $2,419,000 as compared to $2,275,631 last year. Total local revenue is estimated at $725,845 total state revenue is estimated at $1,403,748.

Budget hearing is set for next Tuesday evening in the board room at Canyon High School.

To Battle Spearman

Eagles Take to Road

The Canyon Eagles and The Spearman Lynx will square off Friday night in both teams second non-conference game of the year.

The Warbirds, who squeezed by Clovis last week 15-14, are for the second time this year, ravaged by virus. Five starters were under wraps Tuesday due to the sickness and another Eagle was listed as a doubtful starter Friday due to a rib injury.

Starting center Sammy Kerbal required doctor's care Monday night and will probably not see much, if any action as he has the virus. Linebacker Van James, halfback Raby Ratliff and quarterback Chuck Wright, were also sick during the week, but will probably see considerable action during the Friday night tilt.

Halfback Rick Edmonson suffered injured ribs in the Clovis game and will probably not register any playing time Friday.

"Our biggest problem Friday will just be trying to field eleven boys," commented head coach Ron Mills. "We haven't worked on anything this week except basic fundamentals and keeping our boys well."

Spearman lost to Sunray in their opening game last week. "Potentially they have a very fine ballclub," Mills said, "But they just didn't click against Sunray.

"They ran every set in the world against them, including the run and shoot," Mills added. The 'run and shoot' is sending a man in motion and then sending three receivers to one side flooding the zone. "This play should put our secondary to the test," Mills said.

Talking of the Eagle's game last week Mills said, "The Clovis defense opened the game double teaming both of our ends and using a zone defense in the secondary. "They forced us to run off-tackle to the right or throw to the middle. But — we finally adjusted to that."

Starting linebacker and offensive guard Larry Prichard pitched in saying, "It really took us until the third quarter to get our timing down. We did alright after that.

The Lynx will field a 6-3, 180 pound quarterback. "He, like the rest of the team, just did not perform up to his potential last week," Mills stated.

Wright is scheduled to be the starting Warbird quarterback, but, "Shadix was looking real good" while Wright has been ill.

Cliff Prichard holds down the starting fullback slot for Friday night, while either Matt Hanson or Edmonson will start at the halfback spot and Bill Moore will be the top wingback.

Mike Podzemny and Fred Groana are tapped out as the starting strong and quick side ends respectively. Mills had glowing praises for both of the ends on their performances last Friday night. "Mike (Podzemny) played great, but his blocking ing game was better than anything else. Fred (Groana) did us a great job against Clovis. He caught the ball a couple of times under great pressure."

Randal Smith will be the starting strong side tackle, while either Roy Markum or Bob Counselor will be the top quick side tackle. (Larry) Prichard and Bob Glisar are to be the starting guards.

"We hope that Sammy (Kerbel) will be able to begin the game at center, but it is doubtful that he will even get to play," Mills said. Tom Richie will start at center should Kerbal not play.

Groana and Markum will be the starting defensive ends for the 'Birds Friday and (Larry) Prichard, Bill Moore and Van James are the probable starting linebackers.

Gary Gerber, James Johnson, Shadix and Kenny Jones will comprise the starting defensive backfield.

"We haven't put anything new into our offense or defense this week because we just do not know who will be able to play by Friday night," Mills said. "We are just going to try and play some basic football."

Transport Truck Overturns, Spills Load Of Molasses

A Feedlot Commodities Inc. transport truck overturned on U.S. 87 on the Hereford Loop spilling 44,000 pounds of feedlot molasses about 4:35 p.m. Tuesday.

The driver, Archie Wayne Draper, 2805 Van Buren street, Amarillo, suffered only minor cuts and abrasions. The truck, a 1971 Mack, was almost a total loss.

Draper had been traveling north and took the Hereford exit on U.S. 87. The investigating officer said that apparently the driver had been traveling too fast to negotiate the curve lost control of the truck and it overturned. It took two cranes and a wrecker to upright the truck.

Traffic was blocked for nearly an hour.
